

Guide to Excise Licences

INTRODUCTION

This leaflet is intended to provide general information for persons engaging in certain commercial activities that involve:

- Liquor
- Bookmaking
- Gaming and Amusements
- Mineral Oil Trading – Auto-Fuel Trader’s Licence & Marked Fuel Trader’s Licence
- Auctioneering – Transferred to the Property Services Regulatory Authority¹
- Methylated Spirits

Such persons are required by law to hold a Licence known as an Excise Licence. Excise Licences are specific to the type of business being conducted and are subject to certain conditions and requirements.

All Excise Licences, except Auctioneers Licences are issued by Revenue’s National Excise Licence Office.

All Excise Licences are subject to an annual duty¹. The following appendices provide more detailed information relating to the application form required, the duty payable, and other necessary supporting documents.

Note

This notice should not be considered as a legal interpretation of the laws relating to Excise Licences

NEW LICENCES

The following types of Excise Licences require a Court Certificate, which must be obtained before any application for a new Licence can be processed.

- Most types of Publican Licences
- All types of Hotel Licences
- Special Restaurant Licence
- Most types of Off Licences
- Wholesale Dealers Licence that includes beer
- Gaming Licence

An application for a Court Certificate may be made at any sitting of the Court for the court area where the premises, for which the certificate or declaration is sought, is situated. Please see www.courts.ie or contact your local District/Circuit Court.

All other Excise Licence applications do not require a Court Certificate.

ANNUAL APPLICATION/RENEWAL

The issuing of a Licence Annual Application/Renewal is automatic provided all relevant criteria are met. Licensees will receive a pre-printed Annual Application/Renewal form and a payslip, approximately two weeks before the expiry date. Licensees can use the Revenue On-line Service (ROS) facility, see www.revenue.ie, to pay the duty for the Licence or, alternatively, the payslip (including fee) can be returned to the Collector General's Office in Limerick in the pre-paid envelope provided.

Please note the relevant supporting documents are not to be submitted with the application but they must be held and declared to be in the possession of the Licensee. The documents must be retained for a period of six years as they may be requested for inspection by Revenue.

Failure to apply for your Licence on time may increase the risk of a Revenue audit or other compliance intervention.

Trading without a valid Licence may lead to possible prosecution and court penalties of up to €5,000.
